My Media My Life
Do you want to work in the Deaf Media field?

My Media My Life – online mobile training courses in media and new media in English, German (Austria), French and Italian and the respective sign languages.

Following on from the successful SignMedia SMART learning resource – we are adding a new language, French, to the existing glossary.

We are also running a practical training course in UK, France, Austria and Italy, for deaf media professionals and those wanting to break into the media industry.
In the course we will cover making films, vLogging, pitching and creating powerful messages.
